SHAKTI QUEEN BIRTHING THE GODDESS

For this women's empowerment retreat, Amara Charles and Shyena Venice will present feminine teachings to help you discover a softer and more loving way to nourish your Shakti – the female principle of divine energy. It's about learning how to birth your dreams in a uniquely feminine way.

You will experience how to turn around doubt, shed body shame and plant fresh new seeds to make your dreams happen. Together, in an intimate sisterhood circle, we will share stories of courage and beauty and delve into the mysteries of our divine goddess energies.

Becoming a Shakti Queen is experiential. It's empowering. It's about filling your basket with such nourishing self-love you begin to pour over with the passion and wisdom you need to walk your way in the world.

We welcome new sisters to join this amazing circle of women from around the world.
